Ice cream in a bag
(0) _______ We can eat ice cream at home, we can go to the shops and buy an ice cream on a hot day, and we can order it when we go out to cafés or restaurants. (6) _______ Ice cream is everywhere. But do you know how to make ice cream? Well, here's a recipe that's easy and tasty. So what are you waiting for – start making ice cream!

Ingredients
500 millilitres of thick whipping cream
500 millilitres of single cream
125 grams of white sugar
2 teaspoons of vanilla extract
1 bag of crushed ice
400 grams of salt

Each person making the ice cream needs:
2 small (½ litre) plastic freezer bags
1 large (4 litre) plastic freezer bag
Gloves or towels to protect fingers

Instructions
• Put the whipping cream, single cream, sugar, and vanilla extract into a bowl. (7) _______
• Pour about 200 grams of the mixture into a small plastic freezer bag. Push the sides of the bag together and close it. (8) _______ Push the sides of that bag together and close it.
• Half-fill the large freezer bag with ice. Add up to 400 grams of salt then put one small freezer bag of mixture inside. Push the sides of the large bag together and close it.
• Wear gloves or wrap the big bag in a towel. (9) _______ The mixture is now ice cream!
• Take the small bag out, open it and get your ice cream out. (10) _______

A Shake the big bag for about five minutes.
B Add the other cream and the sugar.
C You can never have enough of it.
D Also, in some countries we can buy ice cream from vans that drive around the streets selling it.
E Enjoy your ice cream.
F Ice cream is popular with people all over the world.
G Mix until the sugar disappears.
H Put the bag into a second small bag.

3 Complete the interview with an actor. For questions 11-20, put the correct letter (A-M) in the grid. There are two answers you will not need. There is an example (0) for you at the beginning.

Interviewer Tell us about your career, Bob.
Bob (0)

Interviewer Really? What did you study there?
Bob (11) I wanted to be a professional singer, but I wasn’t a very good singer.

Interviewer So what did you do after music school?
Bob (12)

Interviewer Did you enjoy making adverts?
Bob (13)

Interviewer So you started filming. What was your first film, Bob?
Bob (14)

Interviewer And what did you have to do in this film?
Bob (15) The director chose me for the part because I danced very well.

Interviewer I remember that scene. Your face looked a bit strange. Did you wear make-up?
Bob (16)

Interviewer What do you remember most about that film?
Bob (17)

Interviewer But you are still in the film business. What plans have you got for the future?
Bob (18) It’s a sci-fi film.

Interviewer Are you going to dance in it?
Bob (19) I’m going to move to Hollywood in June to start making the film.

Interviewer When is the film going to show in Britain?
Bob (20)

Interviewer Thanks, Bob. And good luck with the film.

A Ballet and modern dance, the guitar and piano, and I had singing lessons of course.
B Of course not. I’m going to play a mad scientist.
C I studied at music school.
D I hope I can make more adverts.
E I’m going to make a new film this summer.
F I made a few TV adverts. The first one was for cat food!
G In October.
H It was a comedy. I was very lucky to get the part.
I Last month.
J Yes, I did. But I wanted to do something bigger.
K The hard work!
L Well, I was in one scene in a disco where I won a competition for the best dancer.
M Yes, I had to put on a lot because of the strong lighting.
